

National Rural Water Association

INDIVIDUAL MEMBERSHIP

We invite you to join the partnership of rural water and wastewater professionals across the nation. Stay on top of national and world events that affect your job and business. Find out what's happening in the rural/small municipal industry. Keep posted on current legislation on Capitol Hill. Show your support for rural water! Become an NRWA Individual Member today!

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS?

Rural Water Magazine

You will receive a subscription to this quarterly publication with articles, news stories, legislative updates, commentaries, and other timely information about the changes affecting local, state, national, and world events. New products and programs are also featured.

Networking

You will have contact with national, state, and local rural water professionals and the opportunity to meet and dialogue with them on a personal basis. Membership with NRWA also puts you in touch with our office in Washington, DC, and the annual Rural Water Rally at the nation's capitol.

Discount on Conference Registration

Individual members receive a discount on registration costs to the Annual Management and Technical Conference. This conference features special speakers, training sessions, updates, meetings, discussions, an awards ceremony, banquet, raffles, tours, and entertainment.

NRWA Membership Lapel Pin and Certificate

You will receive a pin and certificate that will identify you as a member and supporter of rural water.

Discount on Merchandise

With your NRWA membership, you are entitled to a 10% discount on all Quality on Tap! merchandise.

Be a part of this nation-wide effort to educate the public and represent the right of every person to have safe, clean water!
